

Weekly Newsletter from week beginning 4th December 2017
Statement to Live by next week: I try to love others as I love myself.

Congratulations to Green team who are in the lead with house points this week and to Year 6 who won the attendance trophy with 99.6% attendance.

Whoops A Daisy Angel

All of the children in Year R, Year 1 and Year 2 have been working very hard practising for their Christmas production of "Whoops a Daisy Angel" which will be taking place on Wednesday 13th December at 1.30pm and again at 9.30am on Thursday 14th December. Letters for tickets to Foundation Stage and Key Stage 1 parents and relatives have already been sent out and further tickets will be available on Monday 11th December in the school office.

Raffle

Next week we will be holding our final Christmas Raffle. Prizes include homemade Christmas puddings and a variety of food hampers for the festive season. Raffle tickets will be on sale on Wednesday 13th December in the morning for £1 per strip and the lucky winner will be drawn after the KS1 production.

Advent Mass and Travelling Crib

Last Sunday marked the first Sunday in advent and today the children took their class Advent wreaths down to mass to be blessed by Fr. Paul. Advent is a very special time to prepare and pray together before we celebrate the birth of Christ at Christmas. We have had such positive feedback from parents about the travelling crib and it has been lovely to see the children so excited to be taking the crib home this week.

Christmas Jumper Day

On Friday the 15th December we will be holding a Christmas jumper day. Children can come in their favourite festive clothing. We are asking for a donation of your choice. All money raised will be going towards supporting our local Catholic Charity the Good Shepherd Appeal so please give as generously as you can.

Christmas Dinner Day

Christmas Dinner day is on Tuesday 12th December. If you would like your child to have a Christmas Dinner please log into Parent pay to pay for this and inform the office that your child would like a Christmas dinner.
